

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	PAGE
FOREWORD .....	5
LETTERS OF TRANSMITTAL
Committee on Loans .....	7
Secretary of Student Loan Information Bureau.....	9
PERSPECTIVE
Student Loans and "The Business of Higher Education".....	11
Chapter I
FINANCIAL DEVELOPMENT OF HIGHER EDUCATION
Early Development .....	17
The Spread of the University Idea.....	17
Motives in Higher Education.....	17
Martin Luther and the New Motives.....	18
Beginning of State Support.....	18
England and its Philanthropic-Religious Institutions.....	19
The Early Colonial Period in America.....	19
Early National Period—(1776-1825).....	20
The Present Period—(1865-1925)—and the New Purpose.....	20
Financial Support and Purposes.....	21
Chapter II
SOURCES OF EDUCATIONAL INCOME
Three Sources .....	22
Property Values of Institutions of Higher Education.....	23
Philanthropic Sources .....	24
Gifts to Higher Education .....	25
Recent Gifts .....	25
Reliability of Philanthropic Sources in the Future.....	26
Philanthropic Sources in 1924-25.....	27
Public Sources .....	27
Incidence of Public Revenue for Higher Education.....	27
Public Sources in 1924-25 .....	29
Student Fees for Tuition and Other Educational Services.....	29
The Increasing Cost to the Student.....	30
Comparative Fees and Tuitions in State Institutions.....	31
Present Schedule of Fees and Tuition.....	32
Comparative Fees and Tuitions in Private Institutions.....	37
Fees and Tuitions in Private Institutions in 1924-25.....	38
The Cost of Education to the Student.....	40
Cost of Building .....	44
Sources of Income versus Benefits.....	44
Chapter III
ALLOCATION OF HIGHER EDUCATIONAL COSTS
Two Phases .....	45
Costs and Increased Enrollments .....	45
Points of View.....	46
Society Should Bear the Cost.....	46
Recipient Should Pay Full Cost.....	48
Dividing Cost Between Recipient and Society.....	48
The Problem of Cost Allocation.....	49
Arriving at the Ratio.....	50
The Present Situation.....	50
Basis for Cost Allocation.....	52
Reasons for Such Allocations.....	54
The Individual .....	55
Knowledge with an Economic Purpose.....	56
The Share of Philanthropy.....	56
The Share of Society .....	56
The Share of the Student.....	57
The Results .....	57