Chapter IV

THE STUDENT AS A FINANCIAL RISK	PAGE
Education as a Commercial Venture	01
Education an Investment	64
Analysis of Student Credit	65
Credit as Applied to Education	66 66
Training to the Student
Student Security Reasons for Losses
Endorsements	69
Group Guarantee	10
Purpose to be Served by Group Guarantee	10
Service of the Group Guarantee	/1
The Guarantee Fund
Disposing of the Guarantee Fund	15

Chapter V

FINANCING THE STUDENT

mt d. 1 .1 .D. 11	77
The Student's Problem	77
Personal Economics or Finance
The Student's Budget	79
The Student's Dudget Chudent's Dudget	79
The Announcement and the Student's Budget
Making the Budget	82
Kinds of Student Aid	82
Self-Help	83
Self-Help	84
Management of Self-Help	· · ·
Self-Help and Student Finance	85
Self-fielp and Student I mancetter	85
Self-Help and Loans
The Postponement of Fees	86
Fellowships and Scholarships	86
Fellowships and pellolarships

Chapter VI

THE ADMINISTRATION OF STUDENT LOANS

	Methods of Administration Amount of Funds Available 1924-25 Past Experience Selecting the Risk Size of Loan Interest Rate Security for Student Loans Term of Loan Methods of Repayment Collections Organization to Administer Loans Charitable, Religious, and Fraternal Organizations Banks and Trust Companies Philanthropic and Semi-Philanthropic Organizations.	90 91 94 97 98 100 101 102 103 105 106 107 107 108 109
Deserves	The Educational Institution	110
	1ENDATIONS	119
APPEND
2 11 I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I	 A. Experience of the Harmon Foundation in Student Loans B. The Loan Association of the German Students The Institution of Honour Loans—France 	121 147 156