

... financial, engineering and accounting
... an observant reader can in no long
... collect sufficient examples of most of the
... problems which arise in the course of
... for the purpose of a concluding set of
... and discussions. If he has a Seminar
...ference or Discussion Class—whatever
... be called—of the senior students, the
... can get them into the way of using their
...s on the issues involved. But it must be
...ed that this involves a readiness on the
...he teacher to put himself into an attitude
...s not congenial to some economists. It
...s a certain amount of discriminating
...; it involves also a resolution to collect
...rds of business experience before setting
...xplaining it.

...uch then for the undergraduate college.
...ate school like that of Harvard may
...self justified in assuming a sufficient
...culture to allow it to dispense with all
...ictly professional or vocational courses.
...and does expect students entering the
...to have a knowledge of economics"—
...s explained as having required "a full
...undergraduate work in the principles
...omics"; with the further and—to an
...it would seem—rather optimistic in-
...a: "students not meeting this require-

