

SECTIONS	PAGE
169. Control of the enemy Government on goods imported into its territory	180
170. Suppression of the distinction between absolute and conditional contraband	181
171. Extended application of the notion of contraband	183
172—6. Onus of proof of the destination of goods lies upon claimants	184
177—82. Presumptions of hostile destination	188
183. Survey of the principle of contraband under modern conditions	196
184—5. Effect of contraband on innocent goods. Theory of infection	198
186—8. Effect on neutral vessels of the carriage of contraband ...	202

CHAPTER VI.

UNNEUTRAL SERVICE.

189. Classifications of unneutral service	208
190. Carriage of enemy despatches	208
191—3. Carriage of military persons	211
194—6. Neutral vessels controlled by the enemy Government.....	215
197. Neutral ships under belligerent convoy	217
198. Rendering of voluntary service as the basis of the offence	218

CHAPTER VII.

TRADING WITH THE ENEMY.

199. Effect of the outbreak of war on the citizens of the belligerent Powers	221
200. Case of The Panariellos	222
201. Trading with the enemy must be distinguished from contraband and blockade	223
202. The institution of "Black Lists"	224

CHAPTER VIII.

BLOCKADE.

203. Definition of blockade	226
204. General conditions governing the institution of a blockade. Effectiveness of blockades	226
205. Blockades must be restricted to the enemy coasts	228
206. Blockades must be notified	228
207—8. Offences against blockades founded on knowledge	231
209—10. Breach of blockade	233
211. Cargoes on board vessels violating a blockade	235
212. Waiving of the strict rights of a blockade	236
213. Raising of blockades	237