

Los Angeles Harbor—the finest of facilities

This Harbor—built to order by the City of Los Angeles—has been developed in recent years into a port of great efficiency. To and from its wharves 135 steamship services carried more than 19,500,000 tons of cargoes in 1924. The development of its shipping since 1920 has been one of the marvels of modern commerce.