

AMERICAN WAR CLAIMS AGAINST GERMANY

EXHIBIT A

NEGOTIATION OF THE TREATY OF BERLIN

Communications exchanged between the Department of State and the American commissioner at Berlin, July 5, to August 20, 1921, relating to the negotiation of the treaty signed August 5, 1921, restoring friendly relations between the United States and Germany.

LIST

- (1) The Secretary of State to the American commissioner at Berlin (telegram) July 5, 1921.
- (2) The American commissioner at Berlin to the Secretary of State (telegram) July 22, 1921.
- (3) The American commissioner at Berlin to the Secretary of State (telegram) July 22, 1921.
- (4) The American commissioner at Berlin to the Secretary of State (telegram) July 22, 1921.
- (5) The Secretary of State to the American commissioner at Berlin (telegram) July 23, 1921.
- (6) The American commissioner at Berlin to the Secretary of State (telegram) July 23, 1921.
- (7) The American commissioner at Berlin to the Secretary of State (telegram) July 27, 1921.
- (8) The Secretary of State to the American commissioner at Berlin (telegram) July 28, 1921.
- (9) The Secretary of State to the American commissioner at Berlin (telegram) July 28, 1921.
- (10) The American commissioner at Berlin to the Secretary of State (telegram) August 6, 1921.
- (11) The Secretary of State to the American commissioner at Berlin (telegram) August 8, 1921.
- (12) The American commissioner at Berlin to the Secretary of State (telegram) August 19, 1921.
- (13) The Secretary of State to the American commissioner at Berlin (telegram) August 20, 1921.

The Secretary of State (Hughes) to the American Commissioner at Berlin (Dresel)

[Telegram—Paraphrase]

WASHINGTON, July 5, 1921.

Referring to the reservations in Section Two of the Peace Resolution, endeavor to ascertain, by informal inquiry, whether German Government intends to raise any question as to any of the rights,