

NOTE.

THE following account of Customs regulations and procedure in Great Britain and Northern Ireland represents the position as it exists at the present time, but it does not purport to be exhaustive, or to be anything more than a general survey and summary. Persons desirous of obtaining information on points of detail which are not explained in the text, or in the various official publications therein referred to, should, except where otherwise stated, address their enquiries to the Secretary,
Custom House, London, E.C.3,
England.

CUSTOM HOUSE,
LONDON, 1926