

- Polishing departments, losses due to accidents in, 104, 107
- Portland Cement Association, data compiled by Bureau of Accident Prevention and Insurance, 19, 117-121
- Printing and publishing companies, trends in accident and production rates in terms of man-hours, 367, 382-385
- Production, accidents in terms of, 6, 82-102
and safety, correlation between, 28-30
and safety, relationship between, 8-14
rates and trends. See under name of product rates, comparison of increases in, 76-77
- Productive time lost due to accidents, 103-111
- Productivity increase, causes of, 4 compiled by the United States Bureau at the Census, 3-4 compiled by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics, 4 compiled by the United States Department of Commerce, 4
- Productivity of industry, percentage of increase of, 22
- Program of investigation, 393-406
- Public utilities, qualitative analysis of accident and production performance of, 75
- Punctures, losses due to accidents resulting in, 106, 109
- Purpose of investigation, 16
- Qualitative analysis of accident and production performance, 65-75
- Quarrying companies, trends in accident and production rates in terms of man-hours, 27, 38, 41, 53, 308-319
trends in accident rates in terms of production, 85, 99
- Railroad cars. See Car-building
- Railroad tools and line materials company, trends in accident and production rates in terms of man-hours, 231
- Railway frog and switch company, trends in accident and production rates in terms of man-hours, 256
- Randall, Dorus P., field engineer, 397
- Rayon and cellophane company, trends in accident and production rates in terms of man-hours, 350
- Recommendation of the committee, 35-36
- Reductions in accident frequency rates, 76-77
in accident severity rates, 78-79
- Relationship between safety and production, 8-14
- Removing chips, losses due to accidents caused by, 105, 108
- Responsibility of management for accident prevention, 33-34
- Results of field work, 397-399
- Review of problem, 15
- Rock, cement. See Cement rock
- Rock, trap. See Trap rock
- Rope and twine company, trends in accident and production rates in terms of man-hours, 351
- Rubber tires. See Automobile tires
- Rugs. See Carpets and rugs
- Safe and vault company, trends in accident and production rates in terms of man-hours, 258
- Safety and production, attainments in, 65-75 correlation between, 28-30
effort required for improvement, 70-72 levels of performance in, 31, 34, 65-75 relationship between, 8-14
subcommittees on, 397
zones of improvement in, 34, 65-75
- Safety and Production Committee, members of, 393-394
- Safety movement, 1, 2, 7, 13, 14
- Sand stone and blue stone quarrying companies, trends of accident and production rates in terms of man-hours, 33, 39, 41, 62, 317
- Scale company, trends in accident and production rates in terms of man-hours, 259
- Schedule of investigation, 395
- Schreiber, Henry, Deputy of the Industrial Commission of Wisconsin, on relationship between safety and production, 11
- Scope of data, 115-116, 120
of investigation, 17-18
- Severity rates of accidents. See Accident rates
- Seward, Herbert L., field engineer, 396
- Sewing machine company, trends in accident and production rates in terms of man-hours, 238
- Shapers. See Machine tools
- Sharp edges, losses due to accidents caused by, 105, 108
- Sheet metal products companies, trends in accident and production rates in terms of man-hours, 28, 38, 41, 47-48, 192, 260-265
- Shipbuilding companies, trends in accident and production rates in terms of man-hours, 192, 266-267
- Shoe repairing machinery company, trends in accident and production rates in terms of man-hours, 268
- Shoes. See Boots and shoes
- Significance of the report, 36-37
- Silver mining. See Gold, silver and miscellaneous mining