

Polar Regions in the Twentieth Century

The financial burden borne by Denmark in caring for Greenland is shown by the expenses for 1925-1926, of $943,000, as against receipts of $800,000. Of the receipts ninety per cent. are derived from the kryolite mine, the balance being in fish, skins and oils.