

	Page
Section 11. Transportation of refined products.....	42
Early conditions.....	42
Investigation of conditions.....	43
Remedial legislation.....	45
12. Growth of the petroleum refining industry.....	45
Importance of petroleum refining.....	45
Quantitative growth of the industry.....	45
Growth in value of products.....	46
Size of refinery operations.....	49
Gasoline produced by integrated companies.....	51
13. Development of marketing facilities.....	52
Standard marketing territories.....	52
Situation in 1915.....	53
Recent changes in Standard marketing territories.....	54
Marketing stations of Standard and large independents.....	55
States included in tank-wagon marketing territories.....	57
Relative importance of the different large marketing companies.....	58
Investment of large companies.....	60
 CHAPTER III.—ORGANIZATION AND CONTROL OF THE PETROLEUM INDUSTRY
I. Prior to Federal suit for dissolution of the Standard Oil Co.....	63
Section 1. The position in the industry of the old Standard.....	63
2. Centralized control of the Standard interests in the Standard of New Jersey.....	65
3. The dissolution decree.....	66
II. Situation following the dissolution.....	67
Section 4. Continued unified control of Standard interests.....	67
5. Marketing systems.....	68
III. Position of the Standard in recent years.....	69
Section 6. Extent of dispersion of control of Standard producing and refining companies December 31, 1923, and June 30, 1926.....	69
7. Extent of dispersion of control of Standard pipe lines December 31, 1923 and June 30, 1926.....	72
8. Position of large groups in the industry in 1925.....	76
IV. Further factors affecting control of the industry.....	79
Section 9. Extent of stockholdings in common.....	79
10. Interlocking directorates.....	81
11. Attendance at meetings of stockholders.....	81
12. Recent important mergers.....	83
Principal acquisitions by the Standard of Indiana.....	83
Acquisition of Producers & Refiners Corporation by Prairie Oil & Gas Co.....	87
The Continental-Mutual merger.....	91
Important concerns taken over by the Standard of New York.....	92
The Standard-Pacific merger.....	94
Merger of the Tide Water and Associated.....	96
 CHAPTER IV.—CRUDE PETROLEUM PRODUCTION, CONSUMPTION, STOCKS, AND PRICES
Section 1. Methods of marketing crude petroleum.....	99
Running crude into gathering lines.....	99
The division order.....	100
Methods of purchasing crude petroleum.....	101
The posted price.....	101
Purchases on contract.....	101
Purchases in California for shipment to the Atlantic seaboard.....	102
Purchases in the Rocky Mountain field.....	102
Purchases in the Appalachian field.....	103
Storage charges on credit balances.....	104
Purchases in the mid-continent and Gulf coast oil fields.....	104
Brokerage charges for handling crude petroleum.....	104