

Attorneys attached to the Department as associate counsel for the Board assist impecunious claimants in their efforts to obtain workmen's compensation. These attorneys appear before the referees and the Workmen's Compensation Board and in some instances, assist in carrying the cases to the appellate courts.