Total Schedule 7					$322,808,790	64,124,204	108,514,018			19.86	33.62 (4)

¹ Import statistics not segregated to apply rates under the tariff act of 1930, but an estimate has been made on which the rates have been applied as follows: 144,958,601 pounds, valued at $11,596,688, for cattle weighing less than 700 pounds each and 105,438,750 pounds, valued at $8,461,329, for cattle weighing 700 pounds or more each.

² Import data not available, but it is estimated that practically all of the imports were light blood albumen, and therefore the rate on light blood albumen has been used.

³ Rate on fresh milk changed by presidential proclamation from 2½ cents per gallon to 3¼ cents per gallon, effective June 13, 1929.

⁴ Rate also applies to sour milk.

⁵ Rate on cream changed by presidential proclamation from 20 cents to 30 cents per gallon, effective June 13, 1929.

⁶ Rate on butter changed by presidential proclamation from 8 cents to 12 cents per pound, effective Apr. 5, 1926.

⁷ Rate on Emmentaler or Swiss cheese changed by presidential proclamation from 5 cents per pound, not less than 25 per cent ad valorem, to 7½ cents per pound, not less than 37½ per cent ad valorem, effective July 8, 1927.

⁸ Includes the following: Game birds valued at $5 or less, $102,345 value; song birds valued at $5 or less, $941,472 value; birds n. s. p. f. valued at $5 or less, $122,496 value.

⁹ Includes the following: Game birds valued at $5 or more, $3,036 value; song birds valued at $5 or more, $5,294 value; birds n. s. p. f. valued at $5 or more, $26,759 value.

¹⁰ Rate on whole egg, egg yolk, and egg albumen, frozen or otherwise prepared or preserved and not specially provided for, changed by presidential proclamation from 6 cents to 7½ cents per pound, effective Mar. 22, 1929.

¹¹ Horses or mules imported for immediate slaughter are free under par. 1695.

¹² Import statistics are not segregated to show other fish roe for food purposes boiled and packed in containers so as to apply the rate of 30 per cent ad valorem, and have, therefore, used the rate of 20 cents per pound on imports; it being estimated that all the imports would be dutiable at the rate of 20 cents per pound.

¹³ The rate on macaroni, vermicelli, and noodles if containing no eggs or egg products is 2 cents per pound, and containing eggs or egg products the rate is 3 cents per pound. It is estimated that the imports would be dutiable under the 2 cents per pound.

¹⁴ Rate of duty on wheat changed by presidential proclamation from 30 cents per bushel (of 60 pounds) to 42 cents per bushel; and on flour, semolina, etc., from 78 cents to $1.04 per 100 pounds; both changes effective Apr. 6, 1924.

¹⁵ Rate on wheat not fit for human consumption is 10 per cent ad valorem.

¹⁶ Rate on mill feeds, bran, etc., changed by presidential proclamation from 15 per cent to 7½ per cent ad valorem, effective April 6, 1924.

¹⁷ Import statistics designate the imports as "oil cake and oil cake meal; bean, soya, and other." It is estimated that all imports are soybean, oil cake and meal.

¹⁸ Rate on cherries, sulphured or in brine, stemmed or pitted, changed by presidential proclamation from 2 cents to 3 cents per pound, effective Jan. 2, 1928.

¹⁹ Rate includes fig paste.

²⁰ Dates, fresh or dried with pits, 1 cent per pound, with pits removed, 2 cents per pound; or prepared or preserved 35 per cent ad valorem. In packages weighing with immediate containers not more than 10 pounds each the rate is 7½ cents per pound. Import statistics not segregated to give effect to this latter rate. The rate of 2 cents per pound has been applied to an estimate of 50 per cent of imports of prepared or preserved dates as being pitted, as the import statistics are not segregated.

²¹ Import data not segregated to give effect to duty.

²² Rates based on crates of 2.45 cubic feet. Quantity has been converted so as to apply rates.

²³ The rate on dried, desiccated or evaporated plums, prunes, and prunells is 2 cents per pound. This rate has been applied to all imports which include green, ripe, or in brine, as the import statistics are not segregated.

²⁴ Imports not segregated. Pears, green or ripe, are included with peaches, par. 745.

²⁵ Import statistics are not segregated so as to apply the rate of 40 per cent ad valorem on glacé candy or crystallized fruits.

²⁶ Import statistics on chestnuts, including marrons, are not segregated so as to apply the rate of 25 cents per pound on candy, crystallized or glacé or prepared or preserved in any manner, but from an analysis of the import statistics for 1928, it is estimated that 300,000 pounds were imported which would be dutiable at 25 cents per pound, and the duty has been computed on this basis. The balance of the imports would be free.

²⁷ It is estimated that the imports of pignolia nuts are all shelled.

²⁸ It is estimated that 40 per cent of the imports were shelled and 60 per cent unshelled.

²⁹ Not including duty-free imports of coconuts from the Philippine Islands, amounting to 46,695,592 pounds, valued at $4,004,620.

³⁰ Rate on peanuts, not shelled, changed by presidential proclamation from 3 cents to 4½ cents per pound and on shelled peanuts from 4 cents to 6 cents per pound, both effective Feb. 18, 1929.

³¹ It is estimated that 85 per cent of the imports were shelled, consisting of cashew nuts and that 15 per cent were other than cashew nuts and were unshelled.

³² Rate on flaxseed, changed, by presidential proclamation from 40 cents to 56 cents per bushel (56 pounds), effective June 13, 1929.

³³ Sweetclover seed is dutiable at 4 cents per pound. Import statistics not segregated so as to apply rate.

³⁴ Bent grass seed changed to 40 cents per pound. Import statistics not segregated to give effect to duty.

³⁶ It is estimated that one-half of the quantity would be the drained weight which is dutiable.

³⁷ The rate on onions was changed by presidential proclamation from 1 cent to 1½ cents per pound, effective Jan. 21, 1929.

³⁹ Sauerkraut is dutiable at 50 per cent ad valorem. Import statistics not segregated to apply rate.

⁴⁰ Chicory, crude, is dutiable at 2 cents per pound and acorn and dandelion roots are dutiable at 1½ cents per pound. The import statistics are not segregated, and the rate applied has been on the basis that all the imports were chicory, crude.

⁴¹ Sweetened chocolate or cocoa, in bars or blocks, weighing 10 pounds or more each are dutiable at 4 cents per pound and whether or not prepared or in any form, 40 per cent ad valorem. It is estimated that 1,000,000 pounds of chocolate were imported which would take the rate of 4 cents per pound, the balance at the rate of 40 per cent ad valorem.

⁴² Teasels not bleached, colored, dyed, painted, or chemically treated is dutiable at 25 per cent ad valorem. This rate has been applied to all the imports.

⁴³ Import statistics not segregated and the quantity stated as imports has been calculated from data of imports of the country of origin.

⁴⁴ Value included in value of contents.

⁴⁵ Represents duty on bottles, vials, etc., on which the value of contents is included elsewhere in this schedule.

⁴⁶ If long staple cotton (1½ inches or over in length) which carries a duty of 7 cents per pound, were excluded from Schedule 7 and included in Schedule 9—Cotton Manufactures—the average ad valorem equivalent rate for Schedule 7 would be increased from 34.00 per cent to 34.99 per cent.

^a Rate on bobwhite quail changed by presidential proclamation from 50 cents to 25 cents each (valued at $5 or less each), effective November 2, 1925.

^b Sea herring.

^c Tariff act of 1930 provides for rate of 2 cents per pound on dried apricots. Import statistics not segregated to give effect to this rate; rate of ½ cent per pound has been applied to all imports.
