1 Imports not segregated.

2 See noncomparable items at end of schedule, page 105.

3 Partial. See noncomparable items at end of schedule, page 105.

4 If containing a substantial part of rayon or other synthetic textile (but not wholly or in chief value thereof) 45 per cent ad valorem. Import statistics not segregated for application of this rate.

5 Rate on men's sewed straw hats changed by presidential proclamation from 60 per cent ad valorem to 88 per cent ad valorem on hats valued at $9.50 or less per dozen, effective Mar. 14, 1926.

6 Estimated.

7 No imports in 1928.

8 Does not include—

Toy books having removable pages transferred under the tariff act of 1930 to this paragraph from paragraph 1410.

Toys (china, etc.), transferred under the tariff act of 1930 to this paragraph from paragraphs 211 and 212.

Dolls, etc., dutiable at 90 per cent transferred under the tariff act of 1930 to this paragraph from paragraph 1529.

9 Estimated that imports of dolls with movable parts and parts not movable are each 50 per cent of the total imports.

10 If containing more than ¼ of 1 per cent of vanadium, or more than ½ of 1 per cent of tungsten, molybdenum, boron, tantalum, columbium, or niobium or uranium, or more than ¾ of 1 per cent of chromium, 60 per cent ad valorem. Import statistics not segregated for application of this rate.

11 No statistical data on match splints and skillets transferred from paragraph 413.

12 Splints 1 cent per thousand, skillets 12 cents per thousand.

13 Natural leaves, etc., estimated one-fourth chemically treated at 75 per cent and three-fourths bleached at 60 per cent.

14 If composed in chief value of dog, goat, or kid skins, rate agreed to is 35 per cent.

15 Does not include hair press cloth transferred under the tariff act of 1930 to this paragraph from 1525.

16 Press cloth of which camel's hair is the component material of chief value carries a rate of 40 per cent ad valorem but not less than 25 cents per pound.

17 Includes hair press cloth transferred under the tariff act of 1930 to paragraph 1523.

18 If the embroidery is such as is commonly known as clocking and does not exceed 1 inch in width or 6 inches in length exclusive of the fork, the rate shall be 75 per cent ad valorem.

19 The full effect of the duty on handkerchiefs can not be calculated. It is assumed that the difference is so small it would not affect this comparison.

20 In addition to the rate shown there is also an additional rate of 1 cent each on hand-rolled or hand-made hems on handkerchiefs valued at not more than 70 cents per dozen.

21 In addition to the rates specified on gloves in this paragraph, there is an additional rate of $1 per dozen pairs, when machine seamed, otherwise than overseamed, and $5 per dozen pairs when seamed by hand. Import statistics are not segregated for the application of these additional rates, however it is assumed that their application would make no appreciable difference.

22 Does not include combs of materials other than horn or hard rubber.

23 Imports of carillons and parts thereof dutiable at 40 per cent ad valorem are not segregated.

24 Import statistics not segregated to show imports of photographic films sensitized but not exposed or developed, except motion-picture films of a width of 1 inch or more having a duty of 25 per cent ad valorem.

25 Does not include cotton wiping rags.

26 Figures are for white bleached beeswax only; other bleached beeswax was free under act of 1922.

27 Countervailing duty.

a Imports not segregated. Rates for 1930 computed at 25 cents per pound.

b Imports not segregated. It is assumed that most of these imports would be dutiable at 60 per cent ad valorem.
