1 Estimated.

2 Additional duty based on pounds imported in 1928, value not shown separately. Adjustment for tungsten and molybdenum estimated. Data for chromium and vanadium not available.

3 Import statistics of autoclaves are not available.

4 Average rate of duty (16.5 cents per gross) used for computation. Statistics for other than carbon steel pens, dutiable at 18 cents per gross, act of 1930, not available.

5 Imports not segregated.

6 Included above with rifles and shotguns valued over $25 each.

7 Estimated additional duty.

8 Imports of parts of pistols can not be segregated to show effect of reduction in rates.

9 It is estimated that the rates under act of 1930 would increase the total revenue of the paragraph 50 per cent.

10 Average rate of duty (35 per cent) used for computation. Imports under 30 per cent and 40 per cent rates could not be segregated.

11 Rate on print rollers changed by presidential proclamation from 60 per cent ad valorem to 72 per cent ad valorem effective July 21, 1926.

12 Separate statistics not available according to changes of classification among pars. 352, 396, and 397, nor for such of these tools which have been classified as parts of machines in par. 372.

13 Countervailing duty.

14 Includes countervailing duty.
