

Dr. William Hög-Stiftung
Washington

RESPONSIBILITY OF STATES FOR DAMAGE CAUSED IN THEIR TERRITORY TO THE PERSON
OR PROPERTY OF FOREIGNERS

A STATEMENT OF THE PRINCIPLES WHICH SHOULD GOVERN THE CODIFICATION OF
INTERNATIONAL LAW ON THE SUBJECT

BY

VICTOR M. MAÚRTUA

Secretary-General ad interim of the American Institute of International Law
Associate of the Institute of International Law

AND

JAMES BROWN SCOTT

President of the American Institute of International Law
Member and former President of the Institute of International Law

PUBLISHED FOR THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

BY

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS

NEW YORK

1930