

CONTENTS.

17

CHAPTER XXXI.

PAGE

Glorious timber—Cutting canoes—Frank suffers from ulcers—The episode of the fetished axe—Rain-gauge readings—The rise of the river—"Goee-goes"—The Lady Alice breached for the first time—A painful discovery: Uledi's theft—His trial and release—The burning of Shakespeare—The bees of Massassa—Local superstitions—Frank's cheery character .. .. . 557

CHAPTER XXXII.

Leaving Mowa—The whirling pools of Mowa—The Jason swept over the falls—The "Little Master" drowned—Too brave!—"Ah, Uledi, had you but saved him!"—The sympathy of the savages .. .. . 575

CHAPTER XXXIII.

Mutiny in the camp—Again among the cataracts—Frank's body found—The fall of the Edwin Arnold river—Tired out!—Wholesale desertion—More cataracts—"Good-bye, my brother; nothing can save you!"—Rushing blindly on—Saved again!—The Jason found .. .. . 585

CHAPTER XXXIV.

Final warnings against theft—Humiliating a protectionist—Kindly tribes—Five of the Expedition abandoned to slavery for theft—Safeni goes mad from joy—Goaded to crime—Ali Kiboga's adventures—The cataract of Isangila—Only five marches from white faces!—Staunch to the death—Rum—My appeal to Embomma—The forlorn hope—The "powerful man" insults us—Struggling on—"We are saved, thank God!"—"Enough now; fall to!"—My letter of thanks—Approaching civilization—Amongst whites; Boma—The Atlantic Ocean .. .. . 594

CONCLUSION.

Kabinda—Sau Paulo de Loanda—Simon's Bay—Cape Town—Natal—Zanzibar—Joy of the returned—The martyrs to geography—Reverie—Laus Deo! .. 622

INDEX .. .. . 633